AT A GLANCE

Vision: a leading Jerusalem academic institution, training excellent engineers, promoting knowledge and applied research, and working to make science and engineering accessible, for the prosperity of society, industry, and Israel's economy.

Goals:

→ Be an engineering center of knowledge in the city of Jerusalem

→ Provide equal opportunity access to engineering higher education to all sectors of Jerusalem's population

→ Support Jerusalem's high-tech industry through a skilled workforce, research, and development

B.Sc. Programs

- Software Engineering
- Computer Science
- Pharmaceutical Engineering
- Mechanical Engineering
- Materials Engineering + as double major Materials (Azrieli) & Chemistry (Hebrew University)
- Industrial Engineering and Management
- Electrical and Electronics Engineering
- Civil Engineering | New and exclusive in Jerusalem

Graduate Programs

- M.Sc. Software Engineering
- M.A. Technological Entrepreneurship | Unique program

The numbers

- 1,632 students
- 4,712 alumni
- 60% first generation in higher education
- 41% women (highest rate studying engineering in Israel)
- 90% job placement

Positioning Students for Success

- Pre-academic prep programs
- Comprehensive support through the Dean's Office: financial aid, tutoring, and personalized support
- Excellence program
- Programs tailored for cultural and religious needs
- Support center for students with learning disabilities and other special needs

Transforming lives with academic studies, a professional degree, and training in a sustainable and relevant career

For more information
contact: Judi Srebro at - judisr@jce.ac.il | +972-54-768-1776